ALIGNMENT
ADVISORY
PROGRAM

Calibration | Alignment | Superiority

“It’s a specialized program that aligns leaders, management and employees to their core identity, producing calibration as precise as an arrow.”

What is the Alignment Advisory Program (AAP)?

It is a specialized advisory program that creates alignment between leaders, middle management and employees towards organizational vision, strategy, objectives, including culture, identity, values, change, innovation and other goals.

The program broadens the perspectives of attendees, creating a whole system transformation, leading to greater synergy and a shared understanding that results in an aligned organizational environment.

Why Choose Alignment Advisory Program (AAP)?

- It covers the immense need for alignment sought after by organizations, industries and institutions
- It is the new HR and organizational development frontier (the science of alignment)
- It connects employees and leaders with objectives, leading to alignment and thus full potential
- Preparing for transformational change that disrupts trends and creates new developments
- In order to be ready, compatible and adaptive.
- Taking advantage of this new frontier and ceasing opportunities ahead of competitors.

Objectives

- Aligning leaders and management to organizational vision and strategic objectives
- Addressing business challenges to promote better understanding that lead to the achievement of goals
- Building up the workforce towards true ownership and loyalty
- Influencing employees towards the organizational success, by matching their capacities with organizational needs
- Identifying and bridging communication gaps

Executive Summary

At the end of the program an executive summary will be forwarded that includes pre and post assessments of issues discussed, business challenges and improvement ideas.

Alignment Advisory Programs

The program is customized according to organizational requirements and comes in three levels with increasing intensity and depth, resulting in a transformational impact and shared understanding for all attendees:

- AAP I (Three Days)
- AAP II (Four Days)
- AAP III (Five Days)

Who Should Attend?

- Leaders
- Middle Managers
- Frontline Leadership
- High Potential employees
- Professionals
